GRAND VINTAGE COLLECTION 0,1l

Moët & Chandon Grand Vintage 2016¹ 23

Grand Vintage 2016 is a brilliant champagne that seamlessly expresses relaxation after hard efforts. This extra-brut champagne reveals notes of toasted grains and unfolds a floral and fruity bouquet. On the palate, it is round and smooth with a delicate hint of clementine freshness.

Moët & Chandon Grand Vintage Rosé 2016¹ 26

Grand Vintage 2016 Rosé is a harmonious champagne, long-lasting, elegant, and precise. On the nose, it reveals late-summer fruitiness. On the palate, it is immediately pleasant and smooth, with a light structure at first that soon softens.

Signature Cocktails

Punch Romaine ^{6, 5, g, l}

21

The history of this punch can be traced back to the 1790s, but it was the father of modern gastronomy, Auguste Escoffier, who created this version with Moët Impérial, which was famously served as a standalone sixth course to first-class passengers on the night the Titanic sunk.

Moët & Chandon Impérial Brut · Eminente Claro Ron de Cuba
Cloudy Bay Sauvignon Blanc · Orange Juice · Lemon Juice · Egg White

Royal Red ^{5, l}

21

The Royal Red is inspired by the cobbler, one of the oldest cocktails in the world. A mixture of Sherry, sugar syrup and fruit created in the United Kingdom around 1810. This iconic cocktail was enjoyed by Edgar Allan Poe and Charles Dickens.

Moët & Chandon Rosé Impérial · Raspberry Liqueur · Sherry Fino

Old Cuban ^{6, 5, l}

19

The Old Cuban is a modern classic from 2001, created by Audrey Saunders from the legendary Pegu Club in New York. It combines the herbal freshness of a Mojito with the timeless elegance of an invigorating Brut Champagne. Cheers!

Moët & Chandon Impérial Brut · Eminente Reserva Ron de Cuba · Lime Juice
Ginger Cordial · Sugar Syrup · Mint · Angostura Bitters

Gimlet Impérial ^{5, l}

19

A tribute to admiral Sir Thomas Gimlette, a British military doctor, who is said to have served a daily dose of lemon juice to the men of the Royal Navy in the East Indies to prevent scurvy, and that he added gin to make the remedy more „attractive“ to the sailors.

Moët & Chandon Impérial Brut · Elderflower Cordial · Ginger Cordial

French 75 ^{6, l}

19

This cocktail owes its name to a French military cannon with a 75-millimeter caliber, which played a significant role in the French army during World War I. It was a French bartender, most likely from Henry's Bar in Paris, who named the cocktail „Soixante-Quinze“ (seventy-five) in 1915.

Give Back to Nature with Moët & Chandon!

Too precious to throw away!
A small cork can make a big difference!
With your cork, you are helping people and the planet.

Did you know that it takes 20 to 25 years for an oak to produce high-quality cork? And that this is a noble material that can be recycled and reused? Your cork is far from obsolete!

Moët & Chandon participates in a recycling program called „Corks for Corks,“ where corks from bottles served in the Moët & Chandon Bar are transferred to a cork producer, where they are processed into granules for the production of high-quality materials in the fields of soundproofing and thermal insulation.

The proceeds from the program benefit the workshop for people with disabilities at Diakonie Kork in Kehl.

Here's to the next 300 Years!

Our nature, our responsibility. Natura Nostra.

For nearly 300 years, Moët & Chandon has looked after the land to ensure balance in the glass, balance of life and longevity of the terroir.

Through this program for biodiversity, Moët & Chandon promotes sustainable viticulture in the Champagne region and the restoration of native flora and fauna populations.

In 2021, we planted 1743 trees in honor of the year we were founded and first enjoyed in Germany!
